All payments submitted after September 1st, 2024 are subject to a $10 late fee.

- ⇒ Submission of your application does not guarantee acceptance.
- ⇒ No vendors will be accepted without prior submission of a vendor application.
- ⇒ No vendors will be allowed to set up before checking in with Chamber staff to get directions to assigned spaces.
- ⇒ Vendors may request a specific location at the show, these requests will be considered but may not be granted.
- ⇒ Electrical capacity is limited. Special requests for locations and electrical outlets will be accommodated as available and in a first come-first served application submission basis.

- ⇒ Event is held outside, rain or shine.
- ⇒ Exhibitors must provide their own equipment, including tent, extension cords, tables and chairs.
- ⇒ Access for setup will be available, but there is no parking in the event area, or surrounding business' parking lots. Free parking is available nearby.
- ⇒ Vendor check-in begins at 6am on Saturday, no early setup is possible.
- ⇒ Your booth space must be cleaned up and garbage delivered to available dumpster on the grounds after the event.
- ⇒ Please plan to remain for the entire event, Vendors who remove their booth before 5pm may not be accepted next year.

- ⇒ All sales are conducted between the exhibitor and purchaser. Sellers are responsible for collecting and reporting Wisconsin sales tax.
- ⇒ Neither the Chamber of Commerce nor the Town of Cable will be held responsible for any lost, stolen, or damaged items, property, or goods.
- ⇒ Absolutely no carry-ins of alcoholic beverages into the festival area.
- ⇒ No shows or cancellations in September will not be reimbursed for their vendor space fee.
